

I strongly recommend that a that this proposal be adapted. The 160 meter amateur band is large enough to accomadated both narrow and wide band modes without overlapping. Further, working DX on 160 is primarily weak signal CW. One strong wideband transmission can completely wipe out weak signal work over a 10KC segment of the band. Please adopt this proposal.

Thanks

Dennis A. Homerick, W8NW